

BOARD OF EDUCATION BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Central Okanagan Board of Education acknowledged that this meeting was held on the unceded, Traditional Territory of the Okanagan People.

Date: Wednesday, May 10, 2023

Central Okanagan Public Schools – "Inside 23":

1. Red Dress Day – May 5, 2023

In attendance from Mount Boucherie Secondary School:

Toni Owens, Vice-Principal
Mary Redfearn, Teacher – Indigenous Academy
Carlee Mills-Doherty – Teacher
Xavier Robinson, Student

May 5, 2023 is Red Dress Day, also known as Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls Day. Red is worn to pause, to remember and reflect on the lost lives and continued violence against Indigenous Women and Girls in Canada. Student, Xavier Robinson, spoke on how the day was originally established in remembrance of the missing women and girls along the Highway of Tears. Teacher, Carlee Mills-Doherty, spoke of the CBC podcast she has been teaching her students on "Who Killed Alberta Williams" who was found dead along the Highway of Tears near Prince Rupert. Mary Redfearn, Academy of Indigenous Studies teacher, assisted Xavier in the presentation, reflecting her advocacy for Indigenous leadership.

Items of Special Mention

The Board Chair, Trustees, Deputy Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent spoke of the following:

- Attendance at various events throughout the District including School Community Student Learning Plan Conversations at Anne McClymont Elementary, École Peter Greer Elementary and Shannon Lake Elementary Schools, the Mount Boucherie Secondary theatre performance of Failure: A Love Story, and the Okanagan Mission Secondary Capstone presentations.
- Trustees, along with the Superintendent of Schools/CEO and Secretary-Treasurer, recently attended the BCSTA AGM in Vancouver. Congratulations was expressed to Trustee Julia Fraser on her appointment as Vice-President of the BCSTA Thompson-Okanagan Branch of the BCSTA. The Board Chair had the opportunity to speak with the Minister of Education and Child Care at the AGM and invited the Minister for a tour of Central Okanagan Public Schools.
- The Central Okanagan Bursary and Scholarship Society (COBSS) recently celebrated 52 years of financially assisting local grads in pursuit of post-secondary education by hosting a Donor Appreciation & Information Tea on Monday, May 1st. In 2022, generous donors gave 585 awards for a value of $545,315.
- May is Child Care Month and Friday, May 12th is Child Care Provider Appreciation Day. This is an opportunity to celebrate the work of thousands of caring and committed child care providers and early childhood educators.
- May 12th is Celebration of Women in Math Day.
- Mount Boucherie Secondary School will be hosting their first student community visual art show at the Peachland Art Gallery opening on May 27th and running until the end of June.
- Central Okanagan Public Schools recently hosted nine educators visiting from Sweden. The group spent a day at three schools to gain inspiration and to learn how to engage children in reading and writing. The Swedish educators observed classes, took part in assemblies, attended support meetings and spent much time in discussion and reflection with our educators.
- The Instructional Leadership Team is currently hosting Symposium 2023 - What Could School Be? This Symposium is a celebration of the work that teachers are engaged with in the District. The morning is spent hearing learning stories from various educators throughout the District. The afternoon is spent visiting the educator's classrooms to observe, reflect on, and (re)imagine hopes and dreams for fostering student agency in schools.
